New Teacher's Dinner

RTU will be holding its New Teacher's dinner on October 3rd at 6pm.

If you are a new teacher to RSB, talk to your school's delegate or contact RTU to reserve your place! It's on us and we have some swag to make your first year a little easier.

RTU would love to meet you in a social setting and break bread with you.

Other Professional Duties

Attached to this email is the OPD tracking sheet.

Teachers should keep track and log their minutes over the course of the year as they occur, and the tracking sheet will tally the hours.

This is how you prove to your administrators that the hours are being done, and to ensure you are not being asked to work more hours than expected of you.

RTU will be holding an ASK-A-STAFFER dedicated to workloads on Thursday Oct 5th, if you would like to discuss any topics regarding workloads in general, or OPD in particular.

See you at the SGM - Tuesday Sept 26th 5:30pm

RTU, in conjunction with QPAT, will be holding a Special General Assembly to hold a strike vote. Please be on the lookout for a registration email. Registration is required ahead of time to attend. This will be the best opportunity for teachers to have their voices heard on this matter.

A huge thanks to the teachers who have already rsvp'd their spot for the September 23rd demonstration. Looking forward to seeing you all decked out in your Commun Front buffs (black & green). Teachers and supporters are still invited to join us on the day in downtown Montreal, using public transportation is recommended. Reach out if you would like to know more.

iA Summer Adjustments

Some teachers may have seen an additional insurance charge on their first or second paycheck of the school year.

This is for summer week premiums that iA was not properly informed of from the school board. It is a province-wide phenomenon. Once the proper information is processed, some reimbursements are expected.
